Cross of Glory's Weekly Newsletter

January 15, 2017

Cross of Glory Church is a community of Christians, deeply rooted in Lutheran theology and tradition, and praising God with contemporary music and meaningful messages. Growing from those Lutheran roots, we reach out to share the Good News of Jesus Christ, proclaiming God's love and acceptance of all people. We offer education and fellowship programs for children, youth, and adults. We serve the community with food and clothing collection programs. Visit our web page, crossofglory.com or our Facebook page for more information.

Book Club – January 29th - Combined Discussion of The Girls of Atomic City and Songs of Willow Frost

Our next discussion will be Sunday, January 29th at 6:00 pm. We will discuss both books - The Girls of Atomic City by Denise Kiernan and Songs of Willow Frost by Jaimie Ford. Everyone is welcome to attend. We are compiling our next set of books to read. If you would like to suggest a book for discussion, please send it to Cheryl Nabors so she can add it to the list.

Blessing Bags – Women's Project on February 24th

Want to spend a night doing something meaningful? We are blessed with so many comforts that it is easy to forget that the necessities of life can be a blessing to many who are experiencing a hard time. Come and join us on Friday, February 24th at 7:00 pm to assemble Blessing Bags for those who are spending time in a homeless shelter. Feel free to bring a beverage and a small appetizer or dessert to share, if you wish.

If you have a gently worn purse that you would be willing to donate, bring that to CoG so we can fill it with supplies. If we don't have enough purses, we will use zip lock bags.

Please plan to bring at least 12 items. Travel sized items will work well. You are welcome to contact businesses to see if they are willing to donate any of these items. Please notify Pat McIntosh-Oles or the office if you are able to get a surplus of any of the following items: shampoo, toothbrush, sanitary napkins, razors, combs, lip balm, thermal socks, small first aid kits, bandages, small $ gift cards, mints/gum, antibacterial lotion, juice boxes, wet wipes, gloves/mittens, light weight snacks.

Women's Retreat - March 17th & 18th

It is right around the corner and we want YOU to be there!!! We have moved to a new location, Camp Manitoque & Retreat Center in Frankfort. We will arrive on Friday, March 17th for fun and fellowship. You can come after 6, but feel free to have your family dinner and join us for some snacks. Later we will be staying at the Adult Recreation Center. Check out their website manitoqua.org for a look. On Saturday, we will enjoy 3 meals at their facilities, and have a private area to gather while we study, learn, and laugh, with the day's festivities wrapping up after dinner. We will share in quiet reflection and lively group activity to help us grow in our faith and knowledge that our God loves us each dearly and has a plan for each one of us to fulfill. The annual retreat is a safe place to meet with like-minded Christian women and share your joys and concerns and receive God's direction in your life. Space is limited this year, so you will need to commit by March 7th. Registration forms will be available soon. Contact Nicole Morin or the office at Cross of Glory.

Monthly Movie Musicals at Dana's House

On the third Monday of each month, you are invited to come over to Dana's house (16759 W. Sioux Drive in Lockport) to watch a movie. (We'll start with musicals, but if those coming want to switch to something else, that would be fine.) Our first musical will be Dana's personal favorite Seven Brides for Seven Brothers. It stars Howard Keel and Jane Powell in a story about an 1850's backwoodsman who brings a wife home to his farm, after which his six brothers decide that they want to get married too. We'll be watching it on Monday, January 16th at 7 pm. Come on over for a good movie and even better company. And feel free to bring a friend – the more the merrier!

Good Gifts Purchases
